Student Job Title:

Student Photographer

Number of Students to Hire: 1

Stipend: 32 rmb/hour

Reports to (Name and Job Title):

Chi Zhang, CSCC Program Coordinator

The Center for the Study of Contemporary China (CSCC) is seeking talented and reliable student photographers to capture high-quality images at various events and activities hosted by the CSCC. This includes lectures, conferences, workshops, and other important gatherings. Capturing compelling photos is essential to the Center's visibility and branding efforts, as these images will be used across CSCC's public platforms and promotional materials. The role requires not only strong photography skills but also efficient turnaround times to ensure that images are shared promptly with guest speakers, the CSCC leadership team, and other key individuals, enhancing the Center's promotion through social media and other channels.

Key Responsibilities:

- Attend CSCC events (lectures, workshops, conferences, etc.) and capture high-quality images of speakers, attendees, and key moments.
- Ensure timely and professional delivery of high-quality photos to guest speakers and other key individuals after events to support event sharing on social media.
- Contribute to the promotion of the Center's efforts by consistently producing visually compelling and professional images that reflect the quality of CSCC programming.

What We Offer:

- The opportunity to develop your photography skills through training and feedback.
- Opportunity to grow your photography portfolio with diverse academic events.
- Hands-on experience in event photography with a focus on timely project delivery
- Your work will be featured across CSCC's online platforms, newsletters, and other promotional materials.

昆山杜克大學

- Opportunities to network with prominent scholars, experts, and guest speakers in China studies and to learn about the latest China-focused research.
- The chance to develop your brand-building and storytelling skills within a dynamic academic environment.

Expected Working Hours:

10-20 hours per month (negotiable)

Requirements:

- A strong interest in photography and visual storytelling, with a keen eye for detail and composition.
- Basic knowledge of photo editing tools/software.
- Prior experience in event photography (preferred but not required).
- Commitment to developing photography skills by attending training sessions.
- Completion of one of the following courses is preferred: MEDIART 104: Introduction to Photography or MEDIART 324 The Photography Essay.
- The ability to work efficiently under tight deadlines and deliver high-quality photos promptly.
- A proactive and reliable work ethic, with the flexibility to attend events as needed.

How to Apply:

Email your CV, a portfolio of your photography work, and a brief statement explaining why you are a strong fit for this position to Chi Zhang at cz129@duke.edu by August 15.
